

Abstract of the Disclosure:

An installation for fabricating semiconductor products includes a transport system for supplying the semiconductor products to fabrication units in a clean room. A portal crane
5 installation includes at least one transport container which is guided above the fabrication units and which can be lowered to the fabrication units.

MB/kf